roll of names of those distinguished in the various pursuits of life, who "Fear no more the heat of the sun, Nor the furious winter rages, They their earthly task have done.'

In the political world of the United States there have been many losses. Among them we note: Hon. John Nelson, of Maryland; Hon. C. J. Ingersoll, of New Haven; Hon. D. A. Bokee, Gov. Daniel Fanshaw and Benjamin Levy, two well-known printers and publishers, the first of New York and the latter of New Orleans, are also among the dead. The venerable Joseph Gales, of the National Intelligencer, also deceased in 1860.

At the head of the roll of military men, we place General William Walker, as the best known. The army of the United States has lost Generals Jessup, Planche and Robert Butler-the latter Jackson's
